Emergency Funds Give Cushion To Money-Short School District

A $103,000 check from the whopping state funds surplus has been allocated to the Canyon School District under emergency school funding legislation.

Supt. Jerry Jacobs said he has received a check for the amount.

The money, allocated by state legislators during their Austin session along with $80 million for other school districts in the state, can be used for any legal school expenditure, Jacobs said, but he's already found a couple of places where it will come in handy.

The long-awaited funds, promised by Gov. Dolph Briscoe last fall when he refused to call a special session to consider upping the state's share of local education programs, were not included in the 1974-75 Canyon school district budget.

Local school board members had called on the governor last fall to call a special session to allocate more funds for districts which, like Canyon, found themselves struggling to balance a budget plagued by higher employee and supply costs.

"We had figured on a balanced budget," Jacobs said. The budget was balanced last August, but school board members were forced to increase taxes to meet rising expenses.

Jacobs said the funds allocated by the state will probably go into reserves to help make up for the bite taken out of the fund by construction of the new vocational buildings on the Canyon High School campus. While the state picked up about half the tab for the building, local funds were also needed to complete construction.

In addition, Jacobs said, part of the emergency income could be allocated toward special projects "if the board has any special projects in mind."

But, the superintendent hopes the funds can be carried over into next year, a year he sees as crucial to the local district in terms of adequate funding.

He anticipates "some dramatic increases" in the operational budget for the next school year due to inflation and due to adjustments in the state formula now used to figure the state's share of the costs for operating Canyon's schools.

Jacobs said the local district, under state funding formulas, will have to raise about $60,000 more from local sources than it had to raise this year.

The amount the local board will have to come up with next year could go even higher than that, though, if legislation pending in Austin is passed revamping the state funding formulas completely.

Several proposals are pending in the capital for changing the way the state pays its share of local education costs and Jacobs has said several times that any of the proposals, if passed, would cost the Canyon school district more local money.

He said he hopes the $103,000 can be a cushion for the next year as the district faces these financial problems.

The total was not included in this year's budget, he said, because "we felt it was poor business to budget on speculation of whether we'd get the money or not."

MISS CANYON will be selected in Canyon Study Club's sixth annual pageant Saturday evening, March 8, beginning at 7:30 p.m. in the Canyon High School auditorium. Club members, Patricia Magness, left, and Kathy Kendrick visit with the current titleholder, Miss Kelly Cox, prior to the coronation where Miss Cox will relinquish her title and crown to the winner.

Council Eyes Use Of Solar Energy

Canyon city commissioners will explore further the possibility of using solar energy to heat the city swimming pool this summer.

They instructed City Manager Glen Metcalf Monday night to meet with West Texas State University physicist Dr. Vaughn Nelson to discuss his recent study of the use of the sun's energy to heat the pool.

Commissioners discussed Nelson's proposal during a budget work session at the close of their regular meeting.

Noting that $3000 has been budgeted for the coming fiscal year to purchase a new boiler to replace a unit which stopped working last summer, Commissioner H.R. Fulton Jr. said the commissioners should consider Nelson's plan for use of solar heat for the pool. He said the city faces ever higher and recurring costs to purchase natural gas to heat a boiler at the pool. Natural gas expense would be eliminated through use of solar energy.

Metcalf said he understands it is possible to install one-half Nelson's proposed system this summer and the other half in 1976. He said he will meet with Nelson to discuss the possibility.

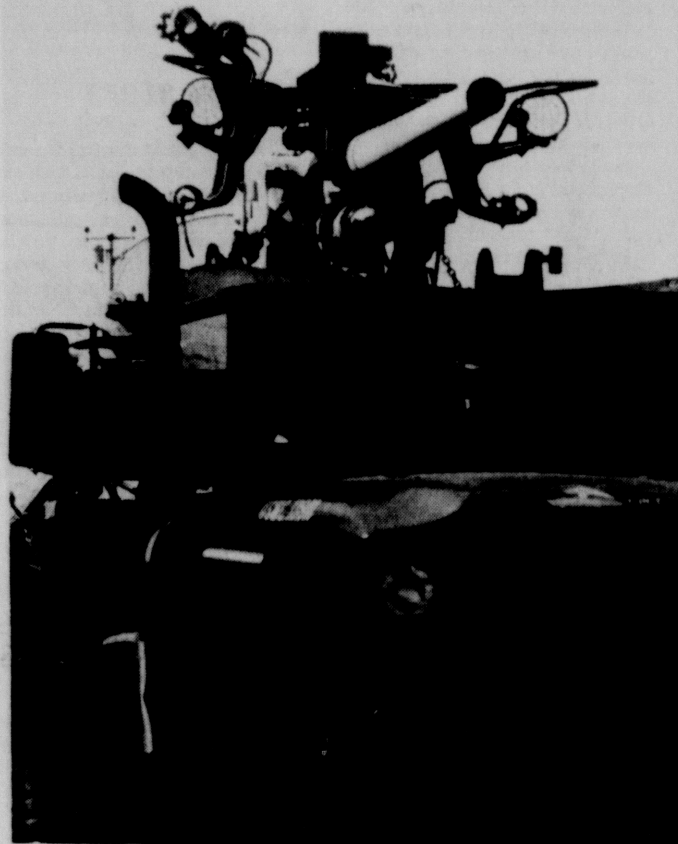

The WTSU physics professor has said it could cost about $6000 to construct a solar energy unit to heat the pool. The unit would be nearly as large as the pool itself and would act as a giant radiator with the sun heating water in pipes in the unit.

He has said the plan is feasible here. The sun shines more than 80 per cent of the daylight time during summer months, he said.

Commissioners had few questions or comments on their proposed 1975-76 fiscal budget which goes into effect in April. They will take a formal vote of approval during their next meeting, at which time a public hearing will also be held.

The budget proposed for approval reflects an increase in expenditure of funds of about 5 per cent over last year's budget. Expenditures are budgeted to total $982,048 while revenues are budgeted to be $982,820. The current budget predicts expenditures of $773,444.

In other business Monday night, commissioners approved issuance of $120,000 in certificates of obligation to pay for work completed during February on construction of the new city hall complex.

This three-inch deck gun of World War II vintage has been donated to the Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum by the federal government. For years the gun has been standing in front of the U.S. Naval Reserve unit in Amarillo. Members of the unit transported the two ton gun to Canyon. According to museum director, Dr. James Hanson, the gun will be located, at a later date, on the museum grounds.

Thirty-five Girls To Seek Crown In 'Miss Canyon Pageant' Sat.

The sixth annual "Miss Canyon" pageant will be held Saturday evening, March 8, in the auditorium of Canyon High School with 35 beauties seeking the title.

Open to the public, the pageant is sponsored here by Canyon Study Club and will begin at 7:30 p.m. Admission at the door is $1 for adults, and 75 cents for children.

The local beauties will be competing for a number of prizes in addition to the title. The new Miss Canyon will receive savings bonds from both the First National Bank and West Texas State Bank of Canyon, along with a $10 gift certificate from Jean's of Canyon, and the crown being furnished by McDonald's Shop here.

Other top winners will receive plaques with the first place runnerup's plaque being furnished by Tweedledee; the second runnerup plaque being furnished by Shannon Engraving Company; and the "Miss Congeniality" plaque being furnished by De'ons.

Television newscaster Dean Kelly, who emceed the pageant Saturday evening and beauties will be judged by a panel including: Mr. and Mrs. Ron Slover of Amarillo, news director for KFDD-TV, Channel 10; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ringo of Amarillo, president of Tascosa National Bank; and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Allen of Friona, district governor of Lions Clubs.

The 1975 Miss Canyon will be crowned by Miss Kelly Cox, who has held the position throughout 1974. One of the first public appearances for the winner will be at the Shamrock Irish Rose Contest. Throughout the remainder of the year, Miss Canyon will serve as a representative of Canyon at various parades, beauty contests and will be honored during the Canyon Days events this summer.

Fashions from Tweedledee will be presented during the pageant Saturday evening as the candidates are judged on appearance, personality and poise.

Miss Canyon candidates and sponsors include the following: Sharon Lindeman for Steven's Floral; Deedy Johnson for First National Bank; Vanessa Cotton for Blackwell Insurance Agency; Laura Rathfor for Southwestern Public Service Company; Joeline Crow for Byrd Pharmacy; Diane Rawlings for Lindsey Land and Cattle; and Joyce Richey for Williams, Etc.

Others are Becky Anderson for Morrison's Conoco; Tammy Barnett for Canyon News; Vicky Miller for Hosse Foster Agency; Doris Brazil for Stevenson's Motor Company; Roma Johnson for De'ons; Carrie Gregg for West Texas Arts and Supply; Sue Carleton for Village Inn; Jeannie Hager for Thompson's; Sharla Wright for Varsity Theater; and Laura Taylor for Tenorio Brick Company.

Controversial ERA Eyed Here From Politics, Moral, Legal Views

The proposed Equal Rights Amendment to the federal Constitution got airing from every side Tuesday night and when the program was completed the men attending a United Campus Ministry discussion outvoted the women in favoring passage of the controversial ERA.

Five speakers dissected the proposal from the legal, moral and opinion angles for an audience of about 60 persons on the West Texas State University campus, an audience which by its own vote was split on the issue.

Mrs. Wayne Daniel of Amarillo, sporting a "STOP ERA" button, weaved her speech around the meaning of the terms "legislative intent," citing quotes from the Congressional Record and the Congressional debate which led to submission of the ERA to the various states for ratification or rejection.

Quoting from Senate debates in 1972 leading to submission of the amendment, Mrs. Daniel depicted Sen. Sam Ervin as an advocate of alteration of the amendment, an advocate whose attempts were defeated by other Senators who she intimated wanted the ERA to remain a nebulous and open-ended amendment.

One amendment she said Ervin proposed was an amendment which would have reduced ERA's impact on marriage laws. She implied that because the Ervin proposal was defeated it is possible homosexuals will be able to marry, perhaps adopt children and even teach in public schools.

Ervin also proposed an amendment to the ERA to keep women from being drafted, but his proposal was turned down by Senators. Similar amendments were attributed to Ervin by Mrs. Daniel concerning rights for widows, concerning retaining the legal responsibilities of the father to provide for his family, and concerning retaining current sex crime laws. All his efforts, she said, were turned down.

When the U.S. Supreme Court begins interpreting the Equal Rights Amendment, Mrs. Daniel said, they will return to those same debates in the Congressional Record to aid in determining legislative intent "and what are they going to think?"

Mrs. Daniel said the fact that the 14th Amendment should operate to eliminate discriminatory practices against women is proof enough that an ERA is simply not needed, particularly not an amendment which is open-ended and unclear.

Mrs. Claudia Stravato, Amarillo Republican Women's leader and active in the League of Women Voters, said the ERA is needed because no other Constitutional provisions have worked to eliminate discrimination against women.

She said the 14th Amendment has come into play in discrimination on the basis of sex only once, and that in 1971.

Much of Mrs. Stravato's (See ERA Page 5)

Mark Adkins, two year old son of Mr. and Mrs. A.F. Adkins of Canyon, found the weather fine for sifting in the sand in Corner Park this week. The official beginning of Spring isn't until March 21 but the Canyon area has been experiencing Spring-like weather throughout the week.

Water, Sanitation Seen As Problems By Metcalf

Two primary problems face Canyon city government in the near and not-too-distant future, the city's new manager, who says he's kept up with the city even while in another Panhandle town, believes — future water supply and improvement of the sanitation system.

Glen Metcalf, a native son who managed the City of Abilene for more than two years, returned to Canyon during a hectic week end and stepped into his job as Canyon city manager Monday morning.

Metcalf says he comes back to Canyon, which he left two years ago after serving as administrative assistant to George Leuder, with a good feel for the problems and assets of the city.

"It's not like somebody brand new," he said, leaning back in his chair. "I'm pretty well aware of the areas of concern over the next several years which I hope to be here."

by Dean Mitch Jones
Whatever intelligence and ability a man may have is in total suspension when he is reduced to playing "Old Sol."

Securing a sound municipal water supply for Canyon Metcalf views as one area of concern, perhaps not in the immediate future.

"Canyon is not alone in this area because any city that is presently on well water or under ground water does not foresee any immediate danger of depletion," he said. "But, it's a problem we need to look ahead to and face before we get in that situation."

Currently, the city is supplied water from wells near Umbarger.

Metcalf said he has no specific plans for assuring Canyon's water supply into the future.

He has, however, had experience in dealing with the water "Old Sol."

Hightower Alters Sharing Stand

Congressman Jack Hightower has apparently reversed his stand on whether federal revenue sharing, which will mean about $1 million to local government here.

Hightower, former state senator who took office as U.S. representative from this district in early January, told The News in early October 1974 he would not support an extension of the federal revenue sharing program after it expires in December 1976.

His opposition was in response to a query from the Canyon City commission which passed a resolution in October calling for an extension of the federal program and asking representatives to make known their opinions.

Randall County commissioners received Monday a letter from Hightower, who defeated incumbent Rep. Bob Price of Pampa in the November general election, and the congressman has apparently changed his mind.

The commissioners passed a resolution in mid-February supporting an extension of the federal revenue sharing program and also asking representatives to send their opinions in writing.

The city has received about $300,000 so far from the federal government in revenue sharing funds and anticipates receiving a total of about $500,000. Randall County has received about $300,000 also and anticipated about a half million dollars before the program runs out.

In October, Hightower told The News: "At this time it is a question of whether we should have it because the federal government doesn't have any money to share. I'd have to find out where the

The legislature is trying to do what will amount to legalizing the 70 mile an hour speed limit in the face of an appeal for a fuel conserving 55 miles an hour by the President.

This is about the dumbest thing ever done by a legislature which can lay undisputed claim to a long list of dumb misadventures.

It just about outdoes anything in the history of the Texas legislature.

Heavy Weed Growths Must Be Fought Soon

Windshield surveys do not show it, yet most Randall County wheat fields are full of weeds. Closer observation shows that all fields have some weeds and many fields have heavy populations of ten or more plants per square foot.

Grain yields in these fields will be severely reduced if weeds are not controlled in the next two weeks according to John Brazzil, Randall County Extension Agent.

Tansy mustard is the primary winter annual weed causing the problem. This weed is prevalent in years with good fall rains according to Dr. Frank Petr, Area Agronomist, Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Presently tansy mustard is in the rosette stage. The small plant is a tuft of fern-like lacy gray-green leaves. Later on in the season the foliage on larger plants resembles carrot leaves.

Research at the USDA Research Center at Bushland shows that one weed per square foot can reduce wheat yields up to

The Texas House Wednesday voted 70-89 to make the maximum fine for driving between 55 and 70 miles an hour $25 and to omit such violations from a driver's record.

Insurance companies could not use the tickets to increase insurance premiums.

This just about pulls the teeth of the 55 mile an hour speed limit. The action was taken in spite of the fact that the Department of Public Safety gives the 55 limit credit for a dramatic drop of 650 in traffic deaths last year.

"Let's stand up and be counted for Texas," State Rep. John Hoestenbach is quoted as having told the Texas House.

Hoestenbach didn't say among what number of Texans he wants to be counted. Some folks may think this would be better off if he is counted among the 650 Texans doomed to die if the speed limit is raised. I don't know.

Here are a few statistics I've worked out on my calculator.

A 550 mile trip in my automobile at 55 miles an hour would require 10 hours while at 70 miles an hour a little less than 8 would be required.

At the lower speed I would consume about 30 gallons of gasoline and at the higher speed about 42 gallons. My radial tires will last a third longer and my car will travel several hundred miles farther without a tune up and probably serve me a year longer without major repair.

Action of the lower house (it may be the lower house in more ways than one) is a blatant show of disrespect for the law and could almost be classed as disloyalty to the nation now locked in an effort that might even spell survival.

Learning Center Enhances Education For WT Nurses

Since September, 1973, the West Texas State University Nursing Department has come a long way.

Located in the Old Administration Building in 1973, the WTSU Nursing Department moved to the Old Science Building Dec. 1, 1974 and acquired a learning center.

All nursing and registered nursing students are eligible to use the Nursing Center Resources Lab, said Mrs. Georgia McCarty, coordinator, who is a registered nurse.

During the fall semester, the lab serviced over 1,000 nursing students, Mrs. McCarty said.

Students receive packets of instructions from their instructors and use slides, films and filmstrips in the center, which is in Room 110, to do their assignments.

Lab instruction is on an individual basis, but Mrs. McCarty is available to answer questions.

The 465 students have access to transparencies, film loops, audio and video tapes, cassette recorders and slide projectors in individual desks.

Materials cover all phases of nursing and, if students need equipment that is not in the department library, Mrs. McCarty will order it for them.

The purpose of the center, she said, is to "provide teacher and learner with all media, resource services and systems necessary for the teaching and learning process."

In addition to the resources center, the students have access to a simulated hospital setting in the room across the hall from the lab.

Hospital beds and life-size mannequins are available for the students to use. The students watch the films on a given subject and then practice techniques in the setting. The prospective nurses can practice giving shots, making beds and giving baths to patients, Mrs. McCarty said.

"We spend quite a lot each year on medical supplies," she said.

"We've accomplished a lot in the last year. Before, we were confined to the classroom and when a student wanted to see a film, we had to go to another room."

She said that the department was currently adding materials to the library and hopes to have additional video equipment in the near future.

Dr. Charles Townsend, a Canyon professor at West Texas State University, returned to his office on campus Monday morning after a sparkling week-end in New York City, where he was presented a Grammy Award for his album notes in the recording For The Last Time: Bob Wills and his Texas Playboys. Townsend, who arrived in Canyon Sunday afternoon after the awards ceremony Saturday night in New York, couldn't bring the Grammy back with him. It is to be engraved and sent by mail later.

Industrial Seminar Today

The Texas Industrial Commission and Southwestern Public Service Company will sponsor an industrial team training seminar this afternoon at the Canyon Community Center.

The seminar will start at 1:30 p.m. and all citizens interested in the economic development of Canyon are invited to attend.

Joe Gidden, SPS district manager in Canyon will open the meeting and Weldon Trice, president of the Chamber of Commerce, will give the welcoming address.

The Texas Industrial Commission will be represented by E. H. Sheffield, senior industrial consultant, and Homer Tucker, industrial development consultant. Sheffield will discuss the purpose of the meeting and also speak on the labor situation and education and training. Tucker will talk on financing, resources, services and transportation.

Southwestern Public Service Company's area development manager, Larry Milner, will speak on general living conditions, government and taxation, sites and buildings, zoning, construction, insurance and economic analysis. Doyle Moore, SPS area development consultant, will discuss utilities and how to prospect.

The seminar is part of Southwestern Public Service Company's Area Development Department program to help communities they serve in their efforts to effect planned and orderly growth and industrial expansion.

Caller Threatens School

Approximately 700 students were evacuated Monday morning from Canyon High School by the Canyon Police Department after a person phoned the school telling of a bomb that was to go off in thirty minutes. The call came in at 9:34 a.m.

The school facility was searched after evacuation but the alleged bomb was not found.

A former CHS student, Alvin Wayne Oglesby, 17, appeared before County Judge Woody Pond on misdemeanor charges in connection with the bomb threat incident.

According to Sgt. Werner Talley, the investigating officer, a statement was received from Oglesby.

Oglesby appeared before Randall County Judge Woody Pond Tuesday and was fined $250 and given a 30 day sentence in the Randall County jail which was probated for six months. The court also ordered Oglesby to undergo psychological evaluation.

Canyon Has Steakeaters

The Big Texas Steak Ranch in Amarillo conducted a "steak eating contest" at the business establishment and several local folks were reported to be participants at the recent event including Canyon High School's assistant principal, Willie McAlpin, and CHS football team members, Bob Lindsey and Bob Lee.

Bob Lee was recorded as the second high "steak eater" by consuming 15 steaks in one hour. The champion steak eater consumed 16 steaks in two hours.

Forensics Team Wins Second

The West Texas State University forensics teams ended their round of tournaments recently with a second place sweepstakes award at the North Texas State University Invitational Forensics Tournament. There were 47 schools from eight states competing.

Senior Marla Rupp earned the Jim Crouch award for the outstanding participant in the tournament, taking first place in poetry interpretation, second in prose reading and tenth top speaker in varsity debate. Miss Rupp and Mike Koenig received the fourth place award in varsity debate.

Team coach Guy Paul Yates, WTSU instructor in speech, was given the outstanding coach award.

Also bringing home one of the nine trophies awarded to the WTSU teams were Donna Smith, Odessa freshman, who placed second in impromptu speaking, and Judy Koenig, Amarillo freshman, who placed fourth in prose reading.

According to Yates, the WTSU forensics teams have placed 50 times this year in 12 tournaments, and have taken home 35 trophies.

Community Education Sees Growth

The Community Education Program sponsored by the Canyon Independent School District has broken all previous enrollment figures.

To date, 248 members of the community are studying different courses offered in the program. This figure compares to 190 participants in the fall session.

Out of 20 courses offered in the beginning, only four have had to be closed, according to Dr. Ken Hart, director of vocational education.

Stretch knit sewing and basic drawing seem to be the most popular subjects this spring Dr. Hart said. There are 34 enrolled in the sewing class and 39 in the drawing class.

"We hope to keep the program growing and get more people involved," Dr. Hart said.

Love is reaching, touching, caring. Sharing sunshine, showers and flowers.

Welch Lecturer Gives WT Talk

Robert A. Welch Foundation, and will appear in El Paso and San Antonio after his WTSU talk.

According to Dr. Gene Crowder, head of the WTSU Department of Chemistry, the Welch Foundation provides $5 million annually for research in Texas, with $54,000 of that going to WTSU faculty and students.

Cromer received his doctorate from the University of Wisconsin before working in the Titanium Division of the National Lead Company as a research chemist. Since 1952, he has worked at Los Alamos, New Mexico, specializing in x-ray crystallography while primarily working on plutonium intermetallic compounds.

Cromer took a professional teaching and research absence in 1965 at the Puerto Rico Nuclear Center where he did work in neutron diffraction. He took a similar leave in Grenoble, France, in 1972. In 1969, the Atomic Energy Commission gave him the E.O. Lawrence Award for his work in plutonium intermetallic compounds.

Group Initiates

The West Texas State University Agriculture Honor Society initiated 43 new members at a Monday meeting.

Dr. Lloyd Watkins, president of the university, was presented an honorary membership certificate by the society.

Dr. Bob Stewart, Director of the Southwest Great Plains Research Center, Bushland, was named as the first nonfaculty advisor, and spoke to the members about the relationships between the food crisis, energy, environment, and opportunities in agriculture.

to further provide that a state-wide system of benefits shall be provided for officers and employees of cities which may voluntarily participate.

The wording of the proposed amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment revising and consolidating provisions relating to state and local retirement systems and programs and providing for a maximum state contribution to state systems of 10 percent of the aggregate compensation paid to individuals."

NUMBER TWO ON THE BALLOT (H.J.R. No. 6)

Amending Article III, Section 24 of the Texas Constitution to:

Provide an increase in salary for members of the Legislature from $400 per month to $600 per month.

Provide an increase in the per diem rate for members of the Legislature from $12 to $30 for each day during each Regular and Special Session of the Legislature.

Provide an increase in the transportation allowance for members from $10 per mile to the rate prescribed by law for employees of the State of Texas.

The wording of the proposed amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment setting the salaries of members of the legislature at $600 per month and setting a per diem of $30 per day during legislative sessions and a mileage allowance at the same rate provided by law for state employees."

ERA. . .

speech was aimed at claims made by Mrs. Daniel.

She said the ERA will not nullify all laws in the United States dealing with matters of sex, but will simply require that no arbitrary classifications be set up which operate to discriminate against one sex over another.

Concerning being subject to the draft, Mrs. Stravato said, "I personally want my full legal rights and am willing to fulfill my responsibilities if required."

She said the ERA will not alter the police powers of each state, powers of each state to regulate such things as whether rest-rooms are separate and whether dormitory facilities are separate for men and women.

And, she said, the amendment will not supercede other rights in the Constitution.

"It's a sad commentary on liberty or American Democracy on our 200th birthday that we're still discussing who has equal rights," she said.

George Ritter, political science professor at WTSU, told the audience there is only one Supreme Court case involving the ability of individual states to rescind ratification of a proposed constitutional amendment once the state has already voted ratification.

In that case, Ritter said, the court determined that rescission of ratification was not a judicial issue, but rather a question to be left to Congress to answer when it decides whether to accept or reject the reports from the various states concerning action on a proposed amendment.

Ritter said he believes the ERA is not needed, because of the various clauses in the Constitution's 14th Amendment which guarantee equal protection of the laws and due process to all citizens.

The Rev. David Melber, pastor of St. Paul Lutheran Church in Canyon, spoke on the Biblical concept of equality.

Following the formal presentations, the audience broke into small group discussions and took a straw poll to determine how many favored or did not favor passage of the ERA.

The vote for female non-students was 19 against and six for passage; the vote for non-student males was 10 for and four against with one abstention; the vote for male students was five for, four against and one abstention; and the vote for female students was nine for, four against and three abstentions.

problems in Abernathy. In that city, wells ran completely dry in 1964 and citizens had to haul water by truck for use. Metcalf was instrumental in putting together a water authority among several small towns to assure a water supply.

Nor does he have any specific proposals to alter the current city sanitation system which poses a problem Metcalf views as more immediate than the water problem.

"I don't like the system now," he said. "The trash containers are totally ineffective. The lids are half gone, they blow up and down alleys and dogs get into them and knock them over."

The system has also been losing money, Metcalf said, due to increased costs for manpower and of fuel.

Yet there has been no increase in service charges to city residents.

"We can't continue to operate something that's using revenue from other sources to make up for a department that's losing money," he said.

Metcalf said there are several solutions for the problem and he will study each.

As for other changes he plans as new city manager, Metcalf said he plans no "earth-shattering" changes.

"I think George (Loudner) has done a fine job," he said. "He left the city in fine financial shape."

HD Club's Program

Given By Mrs. Hall

Mrs. Becky Hall, county extension agent, presented the program on "household repairs" for Highland Home Demonstration Club members at a meeting Feb. 26 in the home of Mrs. Siegfried Bolte at Umbarger.

Mrs. Bernard Grabber presided at the business meeting and discussed the next home arts project of club members and showed what supplies each member should prepare.

Mrs. Grabber, Bolte, Boyd Elliott, Clarence Howard, Warren Thompson and Ervin Podzemny.

Plans were made for a fun-day to be held during April and the next regular meeting was set for March 26 with Mrs. Jim McManigal.

At the Feb. 26 meeting were club members including Mesdames: Bill Van Meter, Jimmy Dietz, O.H. Ralhus, Jim McManigal, Ervin Davis, A.C. Miller, Tom Wilhelm, Earl Davis and the hostess, Mrs. Bob McCasland.

money is going to come from. I would not be in favor of it just to increase the national debt."

In his letter to commissioners Monday, Hightower said he is "surprised at the number of letters I have received in opposition to this program," and said the opposition "is based either on faulty information or arises from abuses in the way the program has been administered in individual situations."

"I am in favor of the concept of revenue sharing and think that the program ought to be continued. Before legislation extending the program comes to the House floor for a vote there will undoubtedly be extensive hearings which will highlight some of the weaknesses that have led to opposition to its continuance. I will take those hearings into account in deciding what changes ought to be made in the Act but generally I hope that we can strengthen and improve the program."

The revenue sharing program was established in 1972 to return federal money to local governments directly.

Several national organizations of city and county officials have urged passage of a bill extending the program another five years.

he termed inconsistent.

"I'd like to make it clear that the people in my precinct who want their taxes raised—not the people who don't want them raised—should give me a call," he said. "Maybe if we get enough who want their taxes raised they could donate to this."

Commissioner Jim Fletcher, who is chairman of the board of the Potter-Randall Child Welfare unit, pointed out that Amarillo has ceased supporting in any manner financing for child welfare in the metropolitan area.

Formerly, the city had contributed $15,000 a year.

The burden to support the agency, which handles children who live primarily inside the city limits of Amarillo, has fallen to the two counties, Fletcher said.

In other business Monday, commissioners voted to eliminate all mileage payments for county elected officials, except for Mrs. Audrey Bruse, tax assessor-collector, who will be paid at the rate of 12 cents per mile for each mile she travels in assessing property in the rural reassessment program.

The decision was made following a lengthy discussion during which Commissioner John Fulgenzi hit the salaries paid Randall County electee officials and other employees. Fulgenzi feels mileage should be paid the officials even though commissioners voted in January to combine a previous $100 per month car allowance with officials' salaries.

"We all know these department heads are paid way below the state average," Fulgenzi said. "The people have an obligation to these elected officials. If we're paying the sheriff $1 a month, then what we've got is a $1 a month sheriff. Somewhere, at some point in time we've got to get these salaries in proper perspective."

"I'm not sure these salaries are not in line," Commissioner Fletcher retorted. "We have the best county in the state and the finest people. Everyone of us ran for the job and salaries we're paid. I have no apologies to anybody for the salaries. I don't think they're out of line. There's no way to compare Randall County with any other county operations."

Jowell HD Club Conducts Meet

Jowell Home Demonstration Club met at the home of Mrs. Bob McCasland on Feb. 26 with Mrs. Jimmy Dietz, president, in charge of the business session.

A council report was given by Mrs. Ervin Davis and she noted that the Jowell Club will be hostess for the March meeting.

Discussion was also held regarding the Appliance Parade and the District meeting to be held in Dumas, April 10.

Becky Hall, county extension agent, gave the program on adjustments and toilet repair.

The club accepted an invitation to be guests of the Pleasantview Club on March 12 at the Farm Bureau Building and plans were made to have an exhibit for Canyon Days this summer.

Plans were made for a fun-day to be held during April and the next regular meeting was set for March 26 with Mrs. Jim McManigal.

At the Feb. 26 meeting were club members including Mesdames: Bill Van Meter, Jimmy Dietz, O.H. Ralhus, Jim McManigal, Ervin Davis, A.C. Miller, Tom Wilhelm, Earl Davis and the hostess, Mrs. Bob McCasland.

"How long can we keep the people at these depressed salaries," Fulgenzi asked.

"We're not having any trouble," Fletcher said. "We have the finest officials in the state."

After this brief exchange, commissioners turned specifically to the paying of mileage to officials and decided to cease the policy.

Commissioner Paul Lindsey abstained from a vote on the issue.

Fletcher flared up again after County Treasurer Bob McCasland asked commissioners to okay a plan to install a private phone line in his office so the secretary in the county office could answer the private line with his law office number, also.

McClendon pushed for a quick decision, but Fletcher moved that the item be tabled until next Monday.

McClendon pushed for a quick decision, but Fletcher moved that the item be tabled until next Monday.

Now you're hitting my back pocket," McClendon said, indicating he might have to move the secretary back to his Canyon law office.

"I don't care what you do," Fletcher said. "I'm opposed to the phone today and I move we table this."

By vote of the commissioners, the item was tabled.

Road Supt. Joe West told commissioners the county paved roads have sustained "extensive damage" due to the icy conditions this winter and reported he and his crews will begin patching as soon as possible.

The commissioners approved issuance of $42,000 in certificates of obligation to pay for work completed on the new South Amarillo courthouse annex during February.

And, they approved urban transportation maps of the City of Canyon for the Texas Highway Department.

Commissioner Griffin discussed providing an umbrella disability income insurance policy for elected officials, but the item was tabled for future discussion.

Eagle Track Team Takes Third In Meet

After only two days of workouts, the Canyon High School boys' track team made an excellent showing in a meet held at Vernon last Saturday.

In a field of nine 3A and 4A schools, the Eagle trackmen placed third in the meet with 77 points behind Gainesville and Vernon.

The sprint relay team took third place with a 45.1 clocking. Kevin Raef, Lyndon Brazile, Craig Johnson and Ron Mills make up the team.

Brazile won the 440-yard dash with a time of 51.8. Another member of the sprint relay team, Kevin Raef, broke the tape first in the 220-yard dash in 23.1.

In pole vaulting, Garre LaGrone, along with another vaulter, broke the meet record with a 13-4 jump. LaGrone had to settle for second place due to more misses. Craig Johnson vaulted 12-6 to take third place.

"The team did real well considering the time we had to work out before the first meet," track coach Gary Conner said. "We have some good athletes on the team and should do real well," Conner added.

Saturday the track team will travel to Sunray for their second meet of the season.

IS ANY POSSIBLE SAVING WORTH THE RISK?

While most everything else is going up, up and up, the average cost of a prescription medicine has remained relatively constant. Insurance company statisticians estimate the average person spends about $18-$20 per year on prescriptions.

Sometimes far away mail order firms promise reduced prices on prescriptions. No possible savings could be worth the personal attention a local pharmacy can give. For those few who are unable to afford medication, we cooperate at their physician's request.

Sponsored by the Randall County Family Living Committee and the Texas Agricultural Extension Service of the Texas A&M University System, the program included a tour of appliances which were furnished by local dealers, Anderson's Appliance and Western Auto.

Programs were conducted on a morning schedule which began at 9 a.m. with a repeat program beginning at 1 p.m.

Speaking on "microwave appliances" was Diane Bim, a home advisor for Southwestern Public Service Company who noted that 3/4 of the cooking time is eliminated for most foods when cooked by microwave in comparison with conventional stovetop cooking methods. She also stressed that clean-up is simpler and cooking techniques are not changed to the point that the

Irene Keating, Castro County Extension Agent, presented the discussion segment on "smoothtop ranges" and further discussed the pros and cons of continuous cleaning ovens versus self-cleaning models.

THE KIDS WERE out of school on Friday, February 28. Seems most of them were able to find things to do. They played basketball, jumped on the trampoline and just wandered around.

My daughter, DeAnn, and myself loaded up Friday afternoon and went to Lubbock and spent the weekend visiting my mother, Ethel Weaver and Royce's folks, and Mr. and Mrs. V.M. McKee. We had a very nice weekend. Tod stayed here with Dusty West, as they had plans made.

When I came home Sunday evening, I found a new pet had been added to our household. A pet mouse, named Ben. Seems Dusty had bought him one also and named his Jo Jo.

Sure do hope they don't manage to get loose!

JON AND DIANA Hoffman made a trip to Kansas, early this week. They went to take Diana's grandparents, Charles and Faye Diehl, back to their home. They had been here living with the Hoffman's since the middle of November.

Marty and Christy didn't want to make the trip or miss school, so they were our guests for a few days.

CANDY AND GARY Bulla of Lubbock were here visiting with Larry and Norma Weeter for a few days this week.

KENNETH AND BARBARA Lett and family went back to Gainesville this weekend, in hopes of getting their acreage more ready to move onto.

Barbara said they cut down thirteen trees and have several more to go, but it will just take some time.

TALKED TO KATHY Burgon Monday. She said, there wasn't any news around her place, except that she has a big paper route now. She and the girls are enjoying getting out afternoons and throwing the paper.

CALLD EUNICE RINEHART to see what she and Barney did this weekend. She said no one came and they didn't go anywhere.

She did say she has a frisky 12 week old female puppy to give away, to a good home. If you are interested, you can see it at 139

LaFiesta or call 355-4852.

WE LOST A couple of families this last week. Jerry and Helen Wells and boys moved from 201 LaFiesta.

Also Bill and Bunny Irwin moved from 264 LaFiesta. They went to Odessa, Texas.

We are very sorry to lose both families, but wish them well.

Umbarger 'Love You' Sunday Set News

By REBA RAEF GREETINGS.

Those Springlike days of last week made me really want to plant my garden. I guess it's a good thing that it isn't plowed yet. We'll probably have a few more cold snaps before it gets warm enough to plant.

NEXT SUNDAY, THE Catholic Youth Organization is sponsoring a "Love You" Sunday, for the older members of the community.

Each C.Y.O. member will bring an older couple or single person for an evening of entertainment. It will start with Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament at 5:00 p.m. in St. Mary's church.

This will be followed by a covered dish supper and games of Bingo, in the parish hall. We are looking forward to the evening.

MR. AND MRS. Ben Burmmel, from Garnett, Kansas had dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Vincent J. Meyer last Sunday. They had been in South Texas for a convention and stopped enroute to their home. The Meyer's and the Burmmels are long time friends.

CONGRATULATIONS TO newlyweds, Larren and Celine Jones. They were married in St. Mary's church in Umbarger last Saturday.

THE KNIGHTS OF Columbus monthly charity supper held last week was prepared and served by the young bachelors in the organization. They served roast beef, gravy, brown beans, salad, home made bread, assorted cakes, coffee and tea.

They had a little help with the bread and some of the cakes, but they cooked the rest of it themselves, and did a fine job.

Harold Batenhorst was the chairman and he was ably assisted by Paul Batenhorst, Randy Wieck, Dean Reinhart, Richard Paschel, Arnie Artho and Marvin Hartman.

Our volleyball tournament starts tonight at 6:00 p.m. and ends Saturday. There will be twelve men's teams and twelve ladies teams playing.

We will have sandwiches, cookies and drinks available, so come watch some good playing and have a snack.

TOM AND SHIRLEY Payne spent last week visiting in South Texas. They went to the coast, visited daughter Shelia and stopped in Austin for the basketball finals.

While there, Tom learned of the death of his sister, who lived in Mississippi, so he flew to the funeral and Shirley came on home. Our sincere sympathy to the Tom Paynes.

THERE WERE 26 in attendance at the Fourth Degree Knights of Columbus supper last Sunday evening. Following the meal, we enjoyed games of 88, 42, pinochle and double cup.

Permanent School Fund Abolished By County

One of the last vestiges of a bygone era when county commissioners had more control over local schools will go the way of the country schoolhouse as a result of county commission action Monday.

The county permanent school fund, created in the late 1800s by Texas Legislators to provide permanent funds for operating schools will be abolished in Randall County. Commissioners voted to abolish the fund.

When originally passed, the permanent school fund was largely padded by income from land given each county for support of schools. But, Randall County has long since sold its permanent school fund land, and about $17,000 remains in the fund, of which the interest is apportioned to school districts in the county annually.

The principal will now be divided up on a per capita student basis, with funds to go to school districts in Amarillo, Canyon, Happy, Willadorado and Bushland.

Local Supt. Jerry Jacobs said the permanent school fund has meant very little to the local district over the past years. He said the school district received about $650 each year and the funds had to go toward bonded indebtedness or new school construction.

With abolition of the fund, the local district can expect about $3000, he said, and that, too, must go into the interest and sinking fund.

But, that will not amount to a net gain in income, Jacobs said, because state law provides that the state will decrease its payments for education in the school district by an amount proportionate to the amount received from the county permanent school fund.

Legislation two years ago allowed abolishment of the fund.
